

VISION FROM GOD

THE demon NAMED, “thief”

May 2008

Praise & worship was as awesome as usual. I was clapping my hands & glorifying God. My back was to the congregation as I sometimes do when I'm seeking my special place with God. Suddenly, I opened my eyes & looked off to the left side of me where I saw a demon with his left arm outstretched coming towards my chest.

I saw the demon so clearly & if I could draw I would have drawn it. It reminded me of the depiction of dracula in the 1920's movie where a woman was asleep & a grotesque monster (dracula) with it's arms outstretched was coming towards her.

“The thief's” skin appeared chalky & clammy. It's color was a light pale gray. It had no hair, had crooked-sharp teeth, long fingers & fingernails, & was slender in frame & about 5'5” tall. It's nature (ways) was sneaky & devious. It's eyes were cunning & observant.

I stared at this demon as I was speaking to God regarding what it was trying to do. God spoke to me saying, “the thief is returning what he stole.” I then yelled, “But God what he stole is now defiled, I don't want it!” God then assured me that it wasn't.

Over the last two years, God showed me how the devil had come into my life & stole parts of my heart, little by little. Without me even being aware until so much of my passion was gone. I was working my ministries & working in the church, but my heart wasn't in it like it had been. Things were beginning to be routine. I was more or less working out of duty. Don't get me wrong, I loved & honored God, but I was getting tired, weary & lifeless. The devil had stole my passion. My passion that was once so strong & burning for God had dissipated greatly. When I had noticed that passion for God & the things of God weren't “fiery” any longer, I had cried out to God to restore my passion for Him & ministry, and God had answered my prayer...

The thief had to bring back what he stole.

John 10:10—The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows).

MAINTAINING YOUR DELIVERANCE

“Daughter, nothing is as important to Me as My people being set free and souls being saved,” God.

Once you’ve been delivered, you must maintain your deliverance. Here are steps to Maintaining Your Deliverance.

1. Honor, love, & respect the one and only God, in the name of Jesus Christ.
2. Have a consistent, effective, & fervent prayer life.
3. Speak positive confessions. Don’t live life as a pessimist. Always be positive, even if things look a mess. Speak life into your situation by speaking what God says & faith will turn it around.
4. Consistently read & study the word of God, the Holy Bible. In the morning I read the “NIV One Year Bible.” It gives you daily bible reading.
5. Fasting lifestyle. Break bad habits through prayer & fasting. When God unctons you to fast...do it!
6. Stay in church & get busy. Staying in constant fellowship with people who love God is encouraging. We establish friends, a new family, & godly counsel. Additionally, working in God’s house will build up your spirit man, help keep your mind from wandering to sin & it greatly blesses God.

7. Daily deliver yourself. Daily, the devil is attacking believer’s mind through circumstances & people & he won’t stop no matter how much you cry out. There are “open doors” that the enemy looks for in our lives, & once he finds one, he’s sure to impart an evil spirit or two. Also, we possibly have ancestors that have sold themselves & their relatives to the devil for fame, fortune, or any other cause. Ancestral & timeline curses must be broken out of our bloodline.
8. Be sold out to Christ! In being consistent in doing these steps, you’re building a greater love relationship with Christ. If He isn’t the “Lover of your soul,” He will be. When we’re passionate about someone, we want to please them. So start seeking Jesus today!

DELIVERANCE IS DAILY

God spoke to me in a vision: I saw people in another country in the midst of a ceremony. In this ceremony smoke was in the air as a person was gesturing with their hands & speaking. This person was calling forth a demon. The Holy Spirit let me know that this woman needed something from the devil & in turn she was giving herself plus her ancestors to the demon she summoned.

In this vision, God impressed upon me that deliverance is daily because there are demonic forces at work against us. Our own relatives may have made pacts with satan, recently or even hundreds of years ago, that affect our lives today. That’s why we must be steps ahead of satan. The book, “Prayers that Rout Demons,” written by John Eckhardt is phenomenal in maintaining daily deliverance. Also, “The Demon Hit List,” by Eckhardt.

THE SCORPION SPIRIT OF FEAR

Recently during church service, my pastor said, “God said that some of you are paralyzed, you’ve stopped moving. He said to keep on treading the soles of your feet!”

Those words struck a cord in my spirit & soul. As Co-Pastor Natalie was moving in the prophetic, I kneeled down & began to pray & speak with God. I asked Him some specific questions. I asked Him what this spirit is that has His people paralyzed & unable to move in what He has destined for their lives. God gave me a vision of a scorpion. And the Holy Ghost ministered to me that a scorpion paralyzes it’s prey. I then began to understand & knew that now I had the ammunition to confront this spirit in victory from God’s people.

I invite all believer’s & those desiring to be saved, to attend my deliverance services. We have sound, biblical teaching in deliverance along with the manifestation of God’s power to heal, deliver, loose, & set the captives free. Come & be free from curses, afflictions, & demonic oppression. Be set-free & made whole, in Jesus’ name.
